Presenting

THE 1987 TARTAN

Covenant College
Lookout Mnt., GA
Volume XXXI

Dedication

In appreciation for his living the college motto "In all things . . . Christ pre-eminent" in front of students, faculty, staff and the surrounding community, the TARTAN staff dedicates the 1987 volume to Dr. Donovan Graham.

As Dean of External Programs and professor of Education, Dr. Graham has continually exhibited his strong commitment to our Lord as he trains young men and women to critically analyze themselves in light of their devotion to Christ.

Dr. Graham earned his B.A. in Math and Secondary Education from the University of Northern Colorado where at the end of his junior year he married a young woman named Wilma. He went on to earn a Master's Degree in Counseling and Guidance from New Mexico State University where he also received a Doctorate in Counseling and Educational Psychology.

Dr. Graham, we the Covenant community take our hat off to you as professor, family man, mentor, and friend. May God continually bless you, your family, and those you touch in the years to come.

The President's Message

Dr. Martin Essenburg

As I reflect upon the past year, I think of many special events, such as convocation, the soccer team's regional championship, Madrigal Dinners, the spring musical play, Day of Prayer, graduation, and even the presidential roast. Those events were outstanding and will be remembered for a long time.

But the year included a great deal of ordinary activity as well—daily classes, chapel services, meals in the great Hall, studying in the library, talking with friends—and these everyday activities were shaping all of us. It is good for us to remember that and to resolve again to live all of life in praise to our Savior and King. An old hymn asks the Lord to fill every part of our lives with praise, so that we may proclaim His being and His ways, and so that we may experience fellowship with the Lord in all the winding steps of life. May the Lord be pleased to fill us with gratitude and praise.

It has been a most enjoyable experience to share many days with you at Covenant College, and now as our paths separate, I pray that the Lord will go with you and that you will honor and praise Him all the days of your lives.

The Holiness of God is an awesome and often fearful concept. He is the all good, all loving and all just God of Abraham, Issac and Jacob who lives today.
He is the God who has consecrated His people to himself. Through His all redeeming grace and mercy He has called us from darkness into the light. It is the hope of the TARTAN staff that each time we open this annual we would be reminded of who we should be and what we should do as Christians in a watching world where Satan is seeking to devour our very souls.
May we keep in our minds the work of Christ upon the cross and our commitment to Him. Amen.

22

Thus you are to be holy to Me
for I the LORD am holy:
and I have set you apart from the peoples to be Mine.

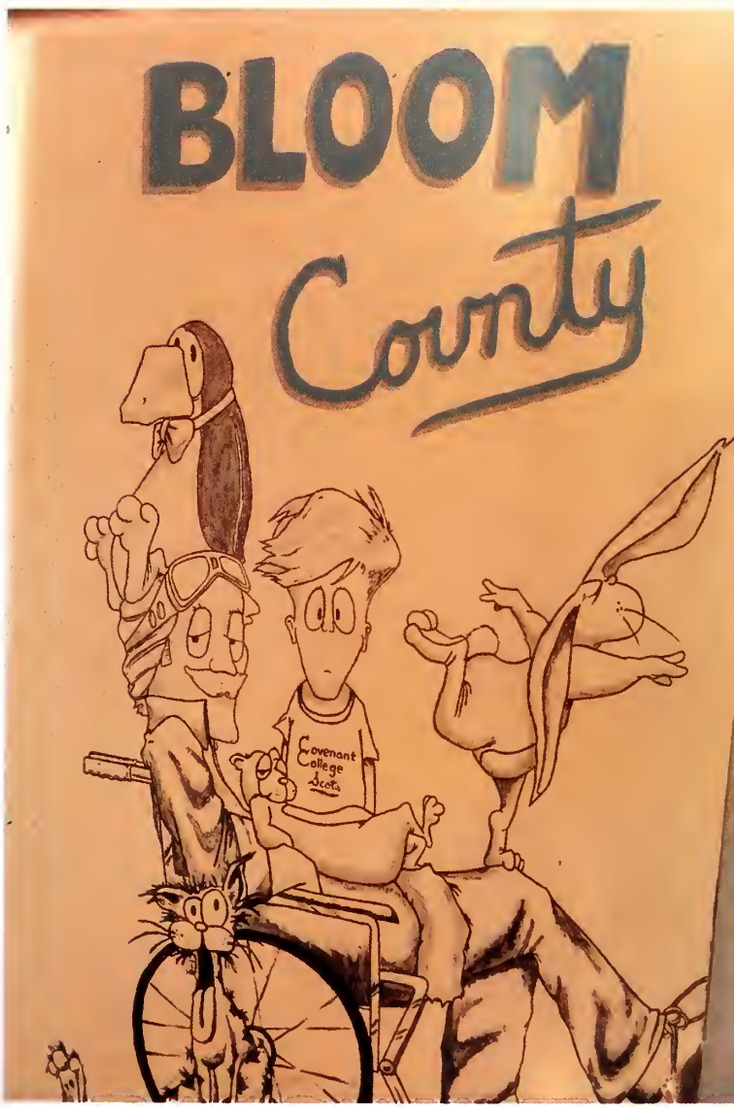
COVENANT COLLEGE
IN ALL THINGS CHRIST PRE-EMINENT

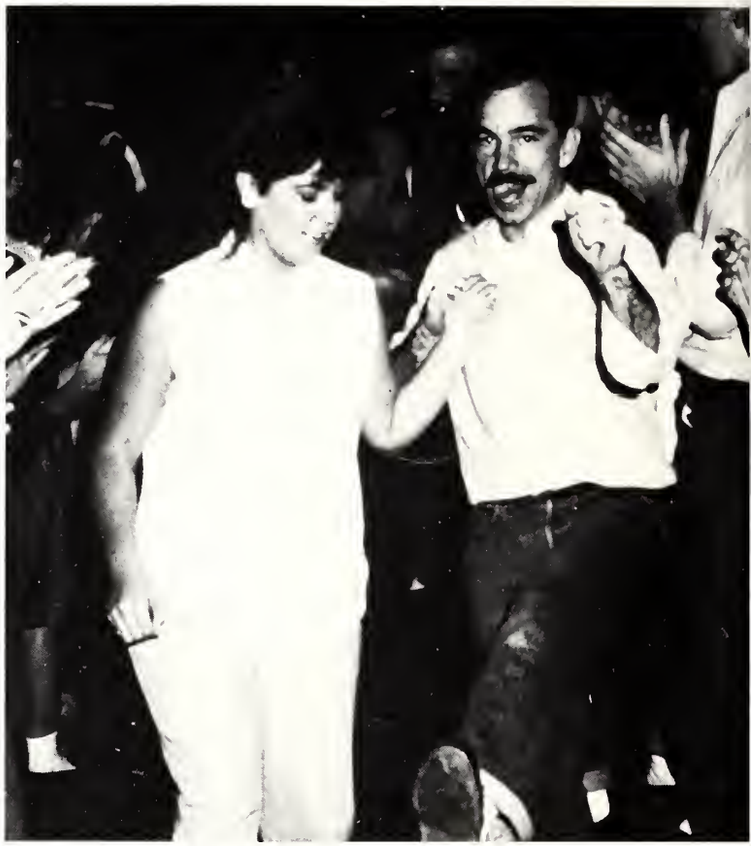
God has created each one of us as responsible free agents. We have the ability to act or not to act in a given situation. It is our job to carry his praises to all the ends of the earth. Of this mandate we have no choice. In these years of seemingly turbulent times in Christ's Church we would do well to look at His humanity for how He lived in this world as an example, "par excellence." We must proclaim Jesus Christ in all our words and deeds, keeping in mind at all times God's uncompromising Holiness. To this end, may we, in the totality of our lives, do all for the glory of God.

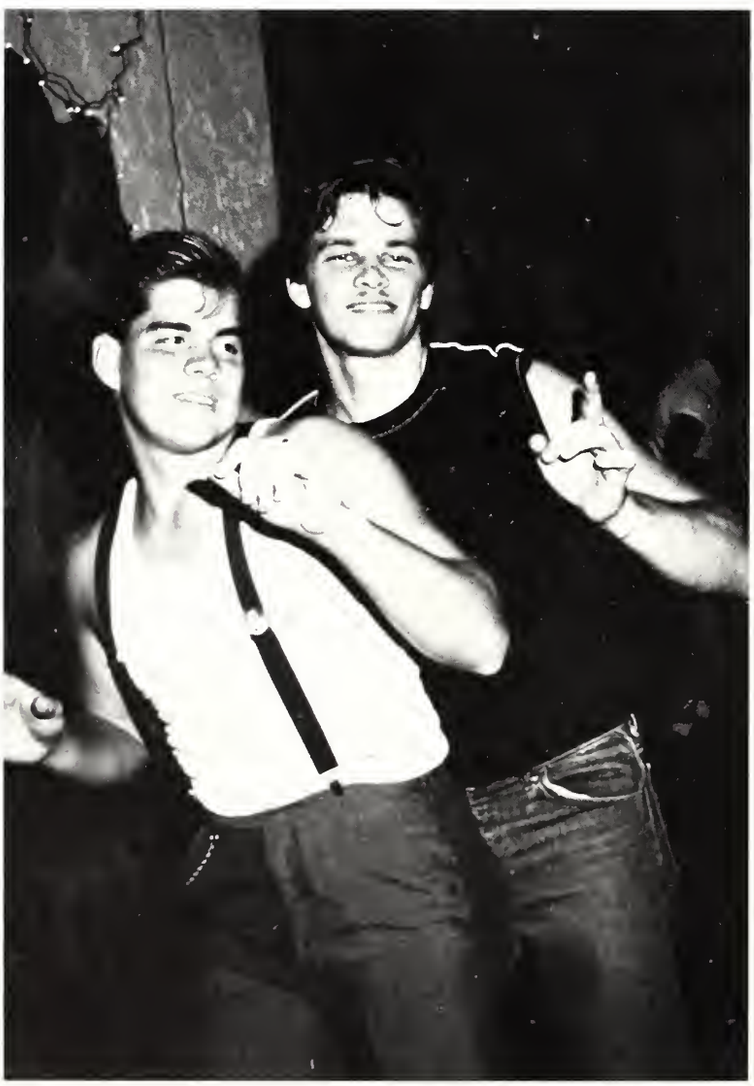


SPECIAL EVENTS

Oh, those GOOD OLE DAYS!!

This year's Fall Banquet was centered around the 1950's. Dinner was served with some "oldies but goodies" being played on the jukebox. It was followed by a VW Cram, a visit from Elvis, a limbo contest, and the Bunny Hop. The evening was peachy keen!





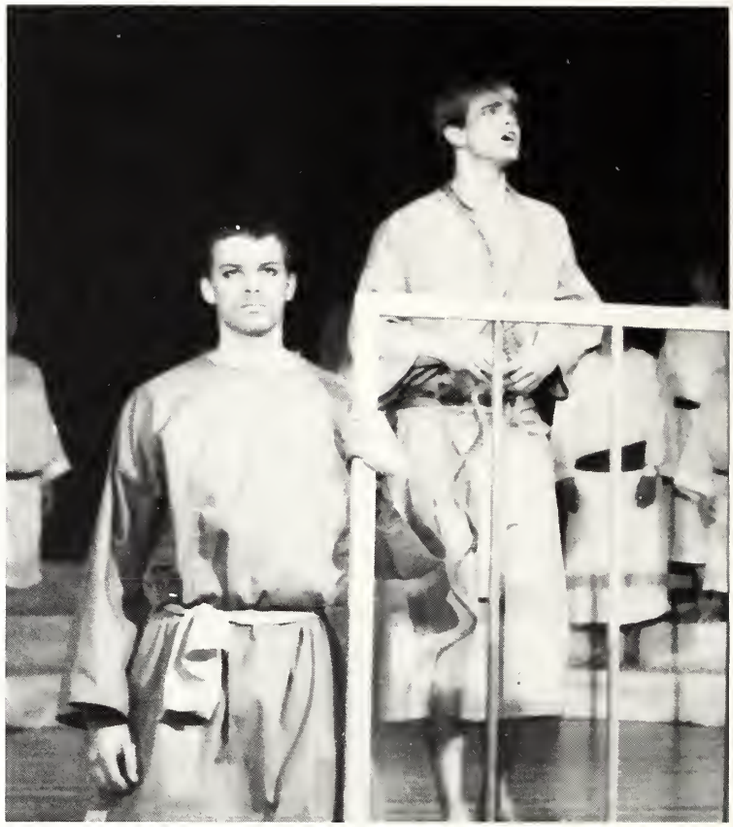
Madrigals: A Festive Celebration

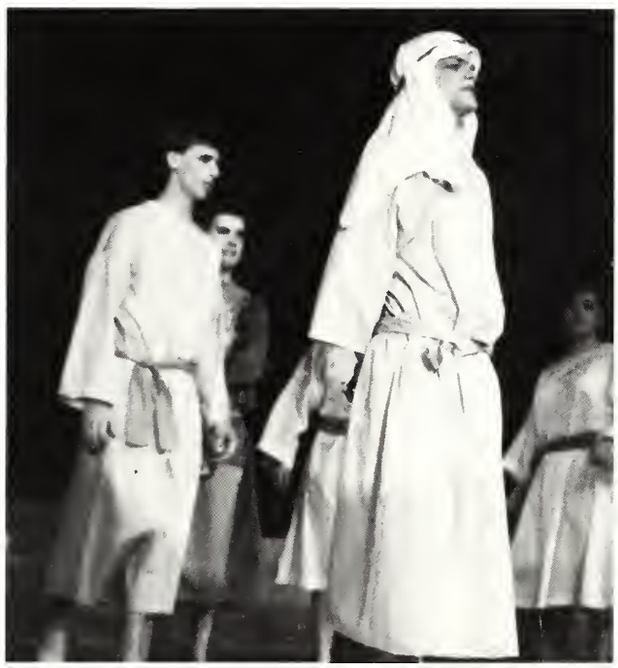
As in years past, the 1986 Madrigal Feast was quite an event to remember as the Higgins presided as Lord and Lady. The holiday decorations, the seasonal music by the Madrigal singers and musicians, and the food of the feast set those who attended into the seasonal Christmas spirit. Highlights included the presentation of the Boar's head, a jester, a tenor soloist, a recorder performer, and a Christmas Carol sing-a-long. Truly a festive occasion!

Come worship Christ the King

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat

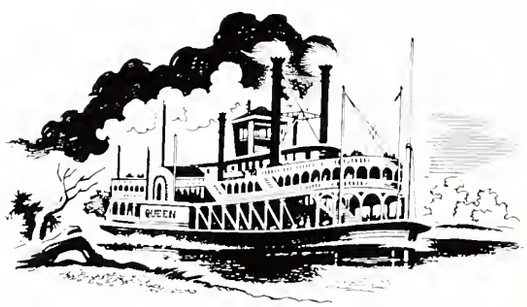
The story of Joseph, son of Jacob, was told in this light and entertaining drama/musical. Music styles varied from country to rock-and-roll. In a humorous and delightful portrayal, the cast told us of Joseph's amazing journey from a slave to the head of the palace. Allison DuBose and Barb Schreur were the directors in this first rate performance.





Spring Banquet

It was a beautiful yet chilly evening aboard the riverboat, where Convenant students enjoyed their Spring Banquet. Lovely dressed ladies and handsome clad men filled the ship. Dinner was served to the music of a live Dixie band. Afterwards, everyone relaxed on the outside deck where the moon and the water combined to end the evening on a peaceful note.



The Spring Thistle

The second annual "Spring Thistle" orchestra concert was held in the Dora Maclellan Brown Chapel-Fine Arts Building at 8:00 p.m. on April 18, 1987.

The varied program was desigend to appeal to a broad audience, and included works by Wagner, Humperdinck, Schubert, and Stravinsky.

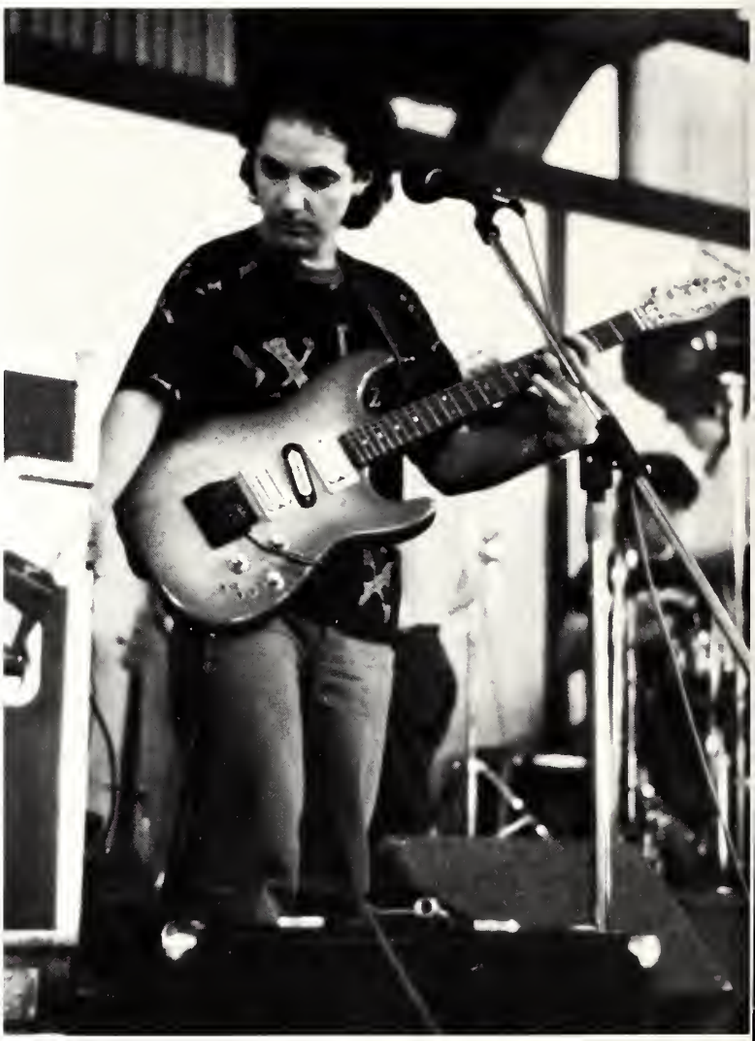
The fifty-five piece orchestra, conducted by Dr. Monroe, was composed of our own students, community musicians, professional musicians from the Chattanooga Symphony Orchestra, and students from colleges in the area. In the second portion of the program, over ninety musicians, including singers, joined in a bona fide community effort performing Sound of Music, Shenandoah, and America the Beautiful.

Phil Keaggy

and

Bryan Duncan

The Covenant Community was entertained and inspired by Phil Keaggy, a guitarist and contemporary singer. Bryan Duncan, who gave an energy filled concert, opened for Keaggy in the Great Hall.



Michael Card

Michael Card, a Christian Contemporary singer, came and gave an outstanding concert in the Spring of 1987.

His mello sound and interesting lyrics brought out many people to hear him. His concert emphasized the birth of Christ and His life on earth. Card's testimony was an encouragement to all.

the GARAGE and JOHNNY LAW

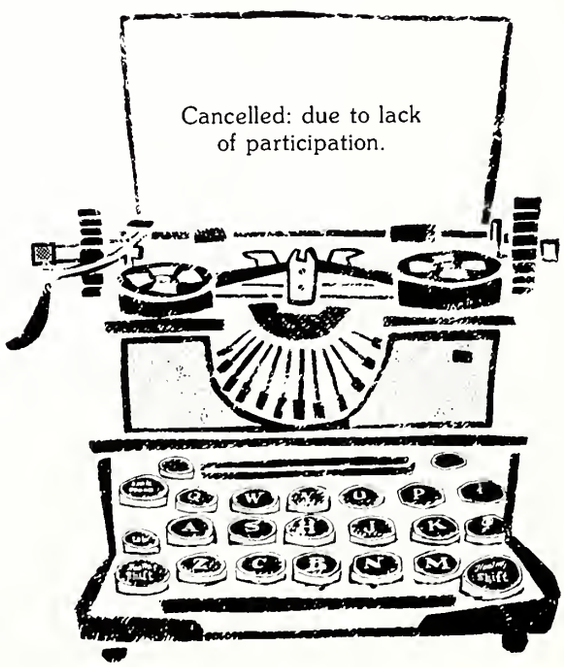
Early in the fall, Covenant students Jon Libby, Mark Howell, David Rayday and Alex Kang formed the band called the Garage. They entertained the student body with top 40 hits, oldies and original pieces. Evening concerts usually packed the house.

The spring brought Mark and Jon back to form a new group called, Johnny Law and the First Offenders.

'Twas the Week Before Exams

The week before exams in December included an evening of Christmas fun. Sitting in their pajamas, students heard Christmas stories and were visited by Santa, HO! HO! HO!

KILTER NIGHT!

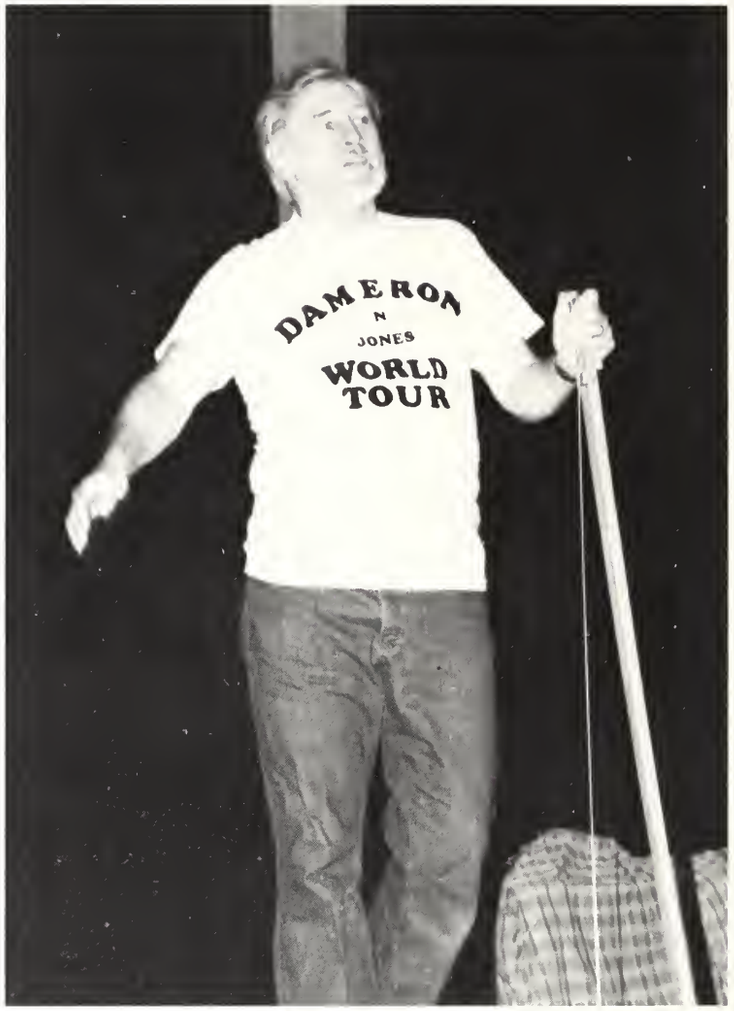


Backwards Night

April Fool's Day was observed in a different manner at Covenant this year. Dinner was served backwards, people dressed backwards, and a Backwards Contest followed dinner. It was a new way to spend April 1st.

Dameron-n-Jones

Every year the duo of Dameron-n-Jones/Jones-n-Dameron take to the stage for an evening of entertainment for the college. They sing, perform skits, and provide lots of laughs to those that attend. Always a great way to unwind at the end of the week!



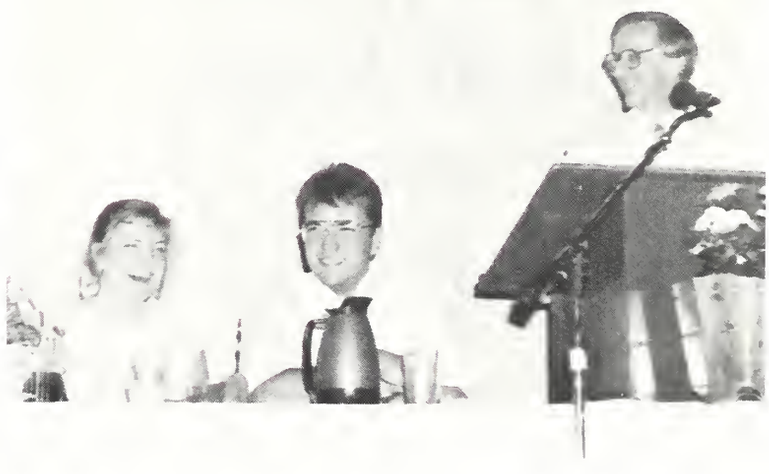
Belz Bash I & II

Belz Hall added a great aspect to the new Covenant Preview Weekends: Belz Bash. A 'progressive snack' going from the Catacombs to the Penthouse provided visitors and students with a good time of fellowship. Each hall had its own theme; from toga to tux. Both were a well planned events and very enjoyable.

Exam Cram?!!

Marty Party!!
Presidential Roast: Send off for Martin Essenberg- Covenant Style

As soon as Dr. Essenburg resigned, plans immediately went under way to give him an official send-off. The committee planning what was to be affectionately called the "Marty Party" was headed by the executive council. The evening went well and gave a true Covenant send-off to our favorite college president.



Senior Luncheon:
A Fond Farewell to Successful Seniors

Chaos Day —— Outrageous Beginnings ——

On an early Saturday morning, the fall semester began with a spirit of hearty competition. Run by Michael Ann Hollyfield and the Resident Directors, Chaos Day comprised several events. The events began with an egg toss, a lemonade squeeze for the ladies, men being fed apple juice from a baby bottle on the laps of female partners, a 'life-saver' pass with toothpicks and many other events. All enjoyed the competition and the events brought new friends together.

Organizational Behavior

This year's QUEST program graduated forty-two men and women. The program, through field experience, qualifies men and women to graduate from Covenant with a degree in Organizational Behavior. It is for men and women in the surrounding area who have not completed their undergraduate work due to various constraints.

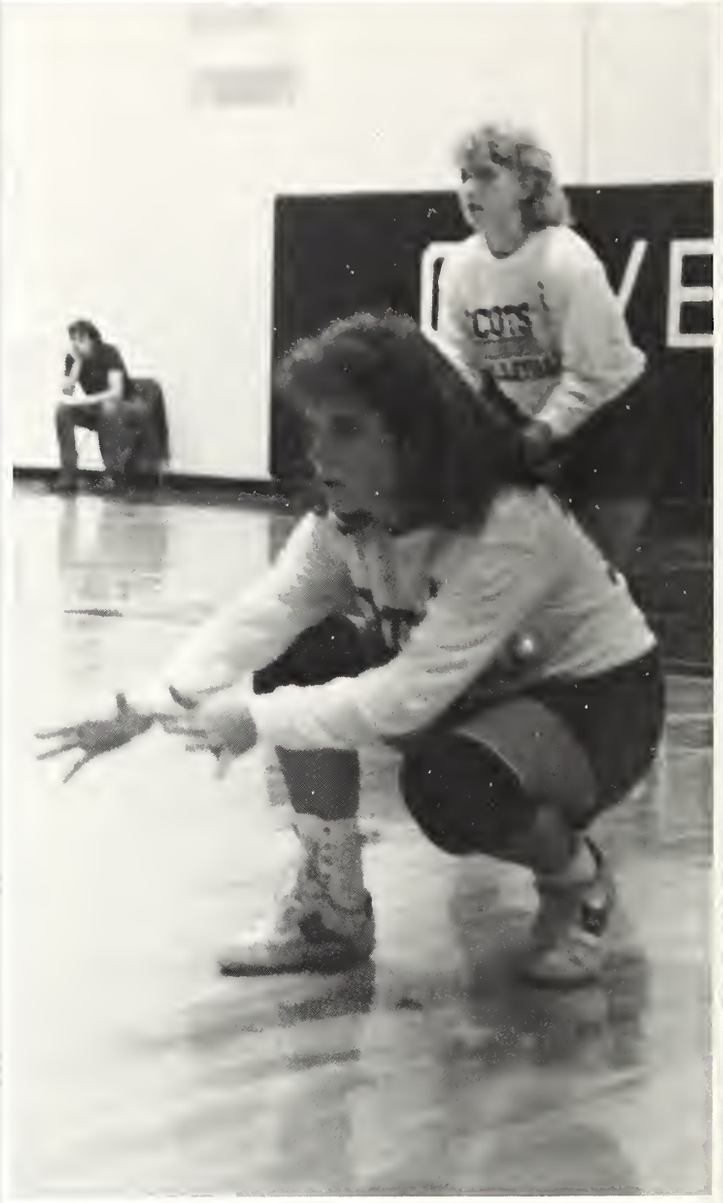
Varsity Scots Soccer

In only his third season at Covenant as head soccer coach, Brian Crossman took the Men's Soccer team to the NAIA National Tournament. The team had a 14-4 regular season with twelve shutouts. In the play-off games, Senior Warren Smith scored the only goal in each of the three games. The team is growing and will prove to be a strong competitor for the national title in years to come. Departing seniors were, James Tuten, Jonathan Parker, Marshall Rowe, Todd Erickson and Warren Smith.



First year coaches Tami Smialek and Sue Ellen Wilson worked with a relatively young Lady Scots Volleyball team. The squad had a disappointing 5-25 regular season. With the loss of only one senior, Yukari Takeda, the Lady Scots have a promising future.

Sc

The 1986-87 Men's Basketball team had an impressive 21-11 regular season and for the second year in a row and for the Second consecutive season advanced to the NCCAA tournament. The Scots defeated the number one team in the area initially, yet lost the next two games. Junior Robert Cummings passed the 1000 point mark to cap off the season. The team will lose only three seniors, Billy White, Brian Evans and Verne Smith.

Standing: Asst. Coach Eddie Salter, Verne Smith, Michael Jackson, James Evans, Keith Hendricks, Steve Fitzgerald, Billie White, David Nance, Robert Cummings, Head Coach Gene Fitzgerald.
